St. James's, February 6.

THE following humble Addreſs from the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council aſſembled, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Waller Bacon and Robert Brittiffe, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE inexpreſſible Felicity the Britiſh Dominions have enjoyed ever ſince your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, by your ſecuring to your People in the moſt perfect Manner all their Rights Civil and Religious, and your Solicitude to make them eaſy in every Reſpect to the utmoſt of your Power, demands the continual Acknowledgments of your faithful Subjects: But particularly, when Deſigns are forming to dethrone your Majeſty, and to overturn our Excellent Conſtitution, your dutiful People cannot forbear, upon ſuch an Occaſion, to expreſs the Senſe they have of their Obligations to your Majeſty, for your great Juſtice and Goodneſs to them; and to ſhew to the World that they ſet a true Value upon the State they are in.

The Encroachments upon the Trade of this Kingdom againſt ſolemn Treaties and Stipulations to the contrary; the haughty Demands for your delivering up your Dominions in Spain; and the Project for placing the Pretender upon your Throne, are Injuries and Indignities that the Britiſh Nation will never bear. We are not at all intimidated by the Menaces of our Enemies, but are ſo ſanguine that we doubt not but by God's Bleſſing, and the prudent Care of your Majeſty in entering into powerful Alliances, and the formidable Force you are preparing upon this Occaſion, the Deſigns of the Diſturbers of the Peace of Europe will be entirely diſappointed.

Your People would be void of all Duty and Gratitude, if they ſhould not be anxious to preſerve the beſt of Kings and the beſt of Governments. We are ſo ſenſible of our Happineſs in this Reſpect, that we ſhall be always ready chearfully to contribute whatever is dear and valuable to us, in the Support of both.

That your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long, happy and glorious; that you may be the great Inſtrument of preſerving the Peace of Europe; and always the ſucceſsful Upholder of the Proteſtant Intereſt, is the hearty Wiſh of,

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Given under our common Seal this Firſt Day of February, 1726.

Stockholm, Jan. 17, O. S. The King of Sweden has caused the following Placard to be published, allowing the Importation of Corn Custom-free.

FRederick by the Grace of God King of the Swedes Goths and Vandals, &c. Be it known, That whereas we have to our great Grief been informed, that not only last Year, but especially this present Year, there has been a deplorable Scarcity of Corn, as well in the great Dutchy of Finland, as in several of the Provinces of the Kingdom: We, out of a particular Care and Concern for the Good and Welfare of our loving Subjects, being willing and disposed to make use of all such Means as may tend, under this present common Want, to the Relief of the poor Sufferers, and likewise to prevent all such ill Consequences as might otherwise ensue, have, for obtaining so good an End, thought fit, among our other gracious Cares, by this our publick Placard, to ordain, that all Corn, consisting of Rye, Barley, and Oats, which shall be imported from Abroad, from what Country soever, (and even without any Difference if the same be brought from our own or foreign Ports, either by Sea, or cross the Frontiers, from one to another Sea Port, or Frontier-Custom House,) shall from the Beginning of the Year 1727, to the last of May the same Year, be free and exempt from paying the great Custom. Pursuant to which, all whom it may concern are to regulate themselves. In Confirmation whereof, we have signed this with our own Hand, and caused our Royal Seal to be affixed thereto. Given at Stockholm in the Council-Chamber the 13th of December, 1726.

Lisbon, Feb. 5, N. S. The 17th past arrived here the Pernambuco Fleet, consisting of 16 Sail of Merchant Ships, under the Convoy of one Man of War; their Cargoes are chiefly Hides, Sugar, and Brazil Wood, besides Money. The 24th past his Portuguese Majesty was pleased to nominate Dom Duarte Sodré Perreira Lord of Aguas Bellas, for Governour of Pernambuco and Captain General of that Province. The 29th past died in the 89th Year of his Age, Dom Nuno Alvez Perreira de Mello, first Duke of Cadaval, fourth Marquels of Ferreira, fifth Conde of Tentugal, one of his Majesty's Councellours of State and War, President of the Tribunal of the Dezembargo de Paço, Master of the Houshold to three Queens of Portugal, Lieutenant-General of the Army next to the Person of his Portuguese Majesty, and General of the Horse in the Province of Estremadura. He was endowed with many extraordinary Qualities, and had the Character of administring Justice very strictly.
